

CHINA, CHRISTIANITY, AND THE DIALOGUE OF CIVILIZATIONS

28th International Conference of the US-China Catholic Association

AUGUST 6 - 8, 2021, SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY

Co-sponsored by the Departments of Sociology, History, Political Science, and Modern Languages, and the Center for Global Engagement of Santa Clara University

Spanning three days, four keynote speakers, a range of practical workshops, academic panels, pastoral sessions, Mass, and many other events to foster a deeper conversation surrounding Christianity, culture, and the friendship between the U.S. Church and the Church in China.

ARCHBISHOP SAVIO HON, SDB (韓大輝) is the Nuncio of the Holy See to Greece, formerly professor at Hong Kong's Holy Spirit Seminary and Secretary of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples.

IAN JOHNSON (張彥) is a New York Times, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and author and will speak about the circumstances of the Church in China today.

LU NAN (呂楠) is an internationally acclaimed photographer and will speak about his 5-year documentary reflection of Catholics throughout rural China.

KIN SHEUNG CHIARETTO YAN (甄健湘) is a professor and expert on youth ministry and will speak about young people and faith in contemporary China.

It's time to make travel plans!

Participate in USCCA Conference 28 and add some time to take in all that northern California has to offer, from the sites of San Francisco, to the beaches of Monterey, and the beauty of the wine country.

Registration is now open! On-site participants must be fully vaccinated by the time of the conference. Participate in person or online.

Visit www.USCatholicChina.org/conference-2021 to register and for more information.

